Janet Davis named Senior Project Manager for KOVA
Strategic Hire to lead new department

NAPLES, FL (March, 2015) – KOVA Property Management, LLC, one of Southwest Florida’s leading property and association management firms, announces the addition of Janet Davis as Senior Project Manager.

In this role, Davis will oversee the investment and development plans for KOVA clients.

“We are very excited about the addition of Janet Davis to our staff,” said Anthony Emma, CEO of KOVA Property Management. He continues, “We feel confident that Janet will provide the company with the expertise to strategically run this department.”

Davis comes to KOVA Property Management with several years experience in the national real estate market. Most recently she served as Vice President at a national commercial real estate company where she coordinated leasing, project management and facilities services for national retail and office clients. She holds a CCIM and is a licensed Florida Real Estate Agent.

Ms. Davis holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Psychology from Mayville University of St. Louis.

KOVA Property Management is part of the KOVA family of companies which includes KOVA Facilities, LLC and KOVA Partners, LLC. With more than 25 years of commercial real estate experience in Southwest Florida, the KOVA family of companies provides a broad range of quality, technology and services to its clients.
